Please read carefully. This constitutes a written contract confirming our verbal contract dated:
You should be aware that a verbal contract is binding in law and that should you break it you may be liable for the full fee negotiated. Should you need to cancel or rearrange this booking, please telephone me immediately.
Payment should be made in cash on the day of the performance or by bank transfer within 14 days. Any additional bank charges incurred are to be met by the employer.
If payment is delayed I am entitled to claim interest of 8% above the base rate.
The contract only comes into force with the return of a signed copy within 7 days.

Cancellation

Should you cancel and I am unable to fill the date with another booking, the following fees will apply:

- 3 calendar months before performance date, 25% of fee will be charged, plus 100% of any travel costs already incurred
- 1 – 2 calendar months before performance date, 50% of fee will be charged, plus 100% of any travel costs already incurred
- less than 1 calendar month before performance date, 100% of fee will be charged, plus 100% of any travel costs already incurred

Should I have to cancel for any reason, I will do my best to find you a replacement storyteller for the day. If I am unable to find a replacement, I will arrange a mutually acceptable alternative date at 5% less than the fee agreed in this contract.
